Creative and Collaborative Methods in Community Research: Interdisciplinary tales of understanding and adventure

The first annual National Roundtable of Culture + Community Researchers
3 – 6 pm, Tuesday, 1 September, 2009 at the VCA, Southbank, Melbourne

3pm - Keynote Presentations

Dr Lachlan MacDowall, University of Melbourne, Centre for Cultural Partnerships

Dr Lisa Slater, RMIT, Globalism Research Centre

Dr Kathleen Irwin, University of Regina, Canada

4pm – Poster Presentations

RHD students are invited to bring a poster presentation of their current work, ideas and issues for display and discussion.

Each poster has 5 minutes to present in a smaller group session.

Posters will be displayed at the Regenerating Community Conference, <http://www.cdn-generations.net.au/conference.htm> 2-4 September, RMIT.

5pm - Reception

Wine and cheese served.

This invitation is not transferable and for PhD students. Please RSVP to lmacd@unimelb.edu.au, before August 15, 2009.

For more information, call Dr Lachlan MacDowall at (03) 9685 9087.

Poster Presentation format is A1 paper size, 941 mm x 594 mm. This type of presentation depends on both artistic design along with technical content. An effective poster will help you engage colleagues in conversation and get your main point(s) across to your audience as a visual summary of your work.
