

The City of Melbourne
Community Cultural Development Program invites you to

Meet the Artist

Michael Needham is a Community Artist

currently visiting Melbourne from the UK to create an arts project with tenants of the Carlton Housing Estate over January 2009.

Michael established 'Neighbourhood Watching' an arts organisation based on the St Peter's Estate in Bethnal Green London where he is a resident.

The organisation has developed and produced a series of arts based events, activities becoming an innovative model for community development.
